Germany, says The Times, now stands alone. Testerday the last and greatest of her considerates fell away from her. The Austro-Bungarian Commander signed an armistice with general Dias, and it will come into force this atternoon. The terms will not be made public until to-morrow, and we shall not attempt to anticipate the announcement, but it is easy enough to surmise their general tenor. Clearly, they must be of such a kind as to ensure, so far as possible, the complete and effective aslation of Germany. The Fower, whose ambitions Germany used to prepare and procoke the world war, and who has been throughout her ready tool and accomplice in the refarious policy of aggression, so andons her, and leaves her either oppose single-handed the foes whom Valenciennes in Britisa hands; Ghent menaced by the Belgians; the clearing of the Argonne by the Franco-American Forces "an accomplished fact"—such are the outstanding features of the war news from the West. MORALITY. Writing on Sunday the Press Association Special Correspondent at Correspondents' He quraters with the British Army in Fran news from the West.

Levend Valenciennes the British have so pressed the enemy that he has withdrawn from his positions east and southeast of the town, and is being harried by our troops.

In Belgium the advance has been very rapid. The enemy has abandoned his positions on the Derivation Canal, which canal the Belgian troops crossed yesterday at dawn. North of the Bruges-Gheat Canal, and between that and the Lys, marked progress on has been made, and the German find themselves in a most difficult position.

Finally, the success of the France-American Armies in the Argonne is of first importance. The ground now gained has opened up to them a new battlefield before hierarches, Sedau, and Montanedy, which will cover the last line of retreat now will come over to take part in the precedings is revired. If it be true the satistic of all, will be universal and profound.

THE FALL OF LUDENDORFF. It is not time, says The Times, during the waters our enemies striven so desperately as now a gread take news and to confuse Allied obtainable and to confuse Allied outs the fall of Ludendorff and its consecuted. ARMISTICE SIGNED ON SUNDAY.

ITALIAN ARMY'S GREAT CAPTURES. 100,000 PRISONERS AND 2,200 GUNS.

Austria has quickly followed Turkey out of the war. A telephone message received in London last night from the Prime Minister in Paris announced that Austria-Hungary had signed an armistice, which will come into operation to-day at three o'clock. An Austro-Hungarian statement issued in Vienna yesterday stated that hostilities had ceased on the basis of the armistice which had been concluded. Concurrently with these announcements comes the news of the landing of Italian troops and naval forces at Trieste, and the occupation of Rovereto. The tremendous pressure which the Italian and Allied troops have exercised on the retreating Austrians in the last few days has resulted in the capture of 100,000 prisoners and the taking of 2,200 guns. The Austrians, in a despatch issued on Saturday, announced their intention to evacuate all the invaded territories in Italy and Serbia.

THE PRIME MINISTER'S MESSAGE.

The Press Bureau issues the following:—

10 Downing street, Whitehall, Sunday. A telephone message has been received from the Prime Minister in Paris to say hat the news has just come in that Austria-Hungary, the last of Germany's props, has ne out of the war.

An armistice was signed by General Diaz this afternoon, and is to come into eration to morrow at three o'clock. The terms of the armistice will be published — In the Italian theatre of war our troops have ceased hostilities on the basis of an stice which has been concluded. The publication of the conditions of armistice will be issued separately. CHIEF OF GENERAL STAFF.

A wireless Austro-Hungarian statement issued in Vienna on Sunday announces:

News transmitted through the wireless stations of the German Government:—
It is reported from Budapest that the National Council, during the night, took over the authority of the Government, after the Budapest garrison had, for the greater part, placed itself at the disposal of the National Council. In view of this fart, Caunt Harlist ceased his efforts to form a new Cabinet. The Archduke Joseph, at the request of the King, had entrusted Count Karolyi with the formation of a new Cabinet. The National Council had advised the population that Count Karolyi had placed himself at the head of the Government.
Budapest presents the picture of a town in a gay mood. The public and private buildings are richly decorated with flags. Incidents demonstrating the brotherly feeling which exists are taking place in the streets. The National Council has decided to stop passenger traffic ou all the railways, and only trains carrying foodstuffs are running. The troops sent by the National Council liberated the troops which had been shut up in the barracks by the gendarmes. A huge mob penetrated into the prison, and liberated the arrested man Leitner, who recently made an attempt on the life of Count Tissa before the Parliament building.

ustria has quickly followed Turkey out of the war. A telephone message received in London last night from the Prime Minister in Paris announced that Austria-Hungary had signed an armistice, which will come into operation to-day at three o'clock. n Austro-Hungarian statement issued in Vienna yesterday, stated that hostilities had ceased on the basis of the armistice which had been concluded. Concurrently with these announcements comes the news of the landing of Italian troops and naval forces at Trieste, and the occupation of Rovereto. The tremendous pressure which the Italian and Allied troops have exercised on the retreating Austrians in the last few days has resulted in the capture of 100,000 prisoners and the taking of 2,200 guns. The Austrians, in a despatch issued on Saturday, announced their intention to evacuate all the invaded territories in Italy and Serbia.

THE PRIME MINISTER'S MESSAGE.

THE Press Bureau issues the following:

10 Downing street, Whitehall, Sunday. A telephone message has been received from the Prime Minister in Paris to say nat the news has just come in that Austria-Hungary, the last of Germany's props, has gone out of the war.

An armistice was signed by General Diaz this afternoon, and is to come into operation to morrow at three o'clock. The terms of the armistice will be published me out of the war.

AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN STATEMENT.

A wireless Austro-Hungarian statement issued in Vienna on Sunday announces:

In the Italian theatre of war our troops have ceased hostilities on the basis of an nistice which has been concluded. The publication of the conditions of armistice will be issued separately. CHIEF OF GENERAL STAFF.

LACE CURTAINS Dainty and Durable at HALF-PRICE.

There's virtue in old stocks nowadays. They are There's virtue in old stocks nowadays. They are oftimes made better than to-day's goods and the prices are less. For instance, these curtains are strong with good designs, and because they are old stock Walpoles' are able to offer them at the cld prices, which are quite halt to-day's. The stocks are small though, so the earlier the order the better, especially as Lace Curtains will be very expensive next year.
